1. Introduction

- 1.1. The purpose of this Policy is to provide guidance to all Heywood, Middleton and Rochdale CCG (henceforth referred to as “the CCG”) employees on Data Protection.
- 1.2. The CCG has a statutory duty to safeguard the confidential information it holds, from whatever source, that is not in the public domain. The principle of this policy is that no individual or company working for or with the CCG shall misuse any information or allow others to do so.
- 1.3. During the course of their day to day work, many individuals working within or for the CCG will often handle or be exposed to information which is deemed personal, sensitive or confidential, (including commercially confidential) information. It is a requirement that any individual, company or other organisation to which this policy applies shall not at any time during the period they work for or provide services to the CCG nor at any time after its termination, disclose confidential information that is held or processed by the CCG.
- 1.4. All staff working in the CCG are bound by a common law duty of confidence to protect personal information they may come into contact with during the course of their work. This is not just a requirement of their contractual responsibilities but also a requirement of the Data Protection Act 2018. (henceforth referred to as DPA) and, the EU General Data Protection Regulation (henceforth referred to as GDPR) and, for health and other professionals, through their own professions’ codes of conduct.
- 1.5. The CCG understands the need for the strictest confidentiality in respect of data. This applies to manual and computer records and conversations about service users’ treatments. Everyone working for CCG is under a legal and common law duty to keep service users’ information, held in whatever form, confidential.
- 1.6. The Information Commissioners Office (ICO) can impose penalties upon the CCG, and/or CCG employees if non-compliance occurs.
- 1.7. Confidentiality can only be overridden in exceptional circumstances and with the appropriate justification and it must be fully documented.
- 1.8. The CCG will ensure that all personal service user and staff information is processed fairly, lawfully and as transparently as possible so that they can:
  - Understand the reasons for processing personal information;
  - Give their consent for the disclosure and use of their personal information where necessary;
  - Gain trust in the way the CCG handles information;

---

Policy Reference: IG13	Approval date: 16//05/2018	Version number: V1
Status: Approved	Next review date: 16/05/2020	Page 4

- Understand their rights to access information held about them.

1.9. It is the policy of the CCG that all processing of personal information by or on behalf of the CCG, whether as a Data Controller or as a Data Processor for others, shall be in accordance with the requirements of:

- The Data Protection Act (DPA) 2018 and any subsequent amendments and statutory instruments;
- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
- The legal requirement to pay a data protection fee (under the Digital Economy Act 2017) to the ICO;
- The CCG’s Policies and Procedures in relation to the protection and use of personal information;
- Processing personal information for deceased patients;
- The Access to Health Records Act 1990 and any subsequent amendments and statutory instruments.

1.10. The aims of this policy are:

- To safeguard all confidential information within the CCG;
- To provide guidelines for all individuals working within the organisation;
- To ensure a consistent approach to confidentiality across the CCG;
- To ensure all staff are aware of their responsibilities with regards to confidential information;
- To provide all individuals working within the CCG access to the documents which set out the laws, codes of practice and procedures relating to confidentiality and which apply to them.

These include:

- The Common Law Duty of Confidentiality;
- Caldicott Principles;
- Data Protection Act 2018;
- General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
- Health and Social Care Act 2012
- Freedom of Information Act 2000
- Human Rights Act 1998
- Department of Health’s “Confidentiality: NHS Code of Practice” including supplementary guidance “Public Interest Disclosures”;
- The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998;
- The Computer Misuse Act 1990
- Digital Economy Act 2017 (Charges and Information) Regulations 2018

2. Scope

- 2.1 This policy applies to those members of staff that are directly employed by the CCG and for whom the CCG has legal responsibility. For those staff covered by a letter of authority/honorary contract or work experience the organisations policies are also applicable whilst undertaking duties for or on behalf of the CCG. Further, this policy applies to all third parties and others authorised to undertake work on behalf of the CCG.
- 2.2 For the purposes of this policy, confidential information shall include any confidential information relating to the CCG and/or its agents, customers, prospective customers, suppliers, patients (where processing has a legal basis) or any other third parties connected with the CCG and in particular shall include, without limitation:
- Service user information;
  - Ideas/programme plans/forecasts/risks/issues;
  - Trade secrets;
  - Trusted methods and business design;
  - Finance/budget planning/business cases;
  - Prices and pricing structures;
  - Sources of supply and costs of equipment and/or software;
  - Prospective business opportunities in general;
  - Computer programs and/or software adapted or used;
  - Policy advice and strategy;
  - Corporate or personnel information; and
  - Contractual and confidential supplier information.

3. Data Protection Act 2018 / GDPR

- 3.1. The Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) along with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) governs how we collect, store, process and share data.
- 3.2. GDPR is applicable throughout the UK from 25th May 2018 in conjunction with the Data Protection Act 2018. The Data Protection Act 2018 fills in the gaps where flexibility and derogations are permitted in the UK. It will ensure that the provisions in the GDPR will be applicable in the UK post Brexit. It is important to note that the DPA 2018 does not replicate all the provisions in the GDPR but cross-refers therefore it is necessary to view both side by side in order to see the complete picture of all data protection legislation.
- 3.3. Under GDPR, the CCG no longer has to register with the ICO but under the Charges and Information Regulations 2018 (Digital Economy Act 2017) it will remain a legal requirement for data controllers to pay the ICO a data protection fee. These fees will be used to fund the ICO's data protection work.

Policy Reference: IG13	Approval date: 16//05/2018	Version number: V1
Status: Approved	Next review date: 16/05/2020	Page 6

- 3.4. The CCG, who is a Data Controller, must comply with the 6 principles under GDPR the CCG is committed to compliance with the requirements of the DPA and GDPR and will ensure that all CCG employees and anyone providing a service on behalf of the CCG (directly employed and contractors) who have access to any personal data held by or behalf of the CCG or the Greater Manchester Shared Services (GMSS), are fully aware of and abide by their duties and responsibilities.
- 3.5. The CCG may be required by law to collect and use information about people with whom it works, including patients, public, employees, customers and suppliers. This personal information must be handled and managed appropriately however it is collected, recorded and used and whether it is a manual or electronic record.

3.6 Principles relating to the processing of personal data

3.6.1 (a) Processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals;

3.6.2 The CCG must show transparency regarding how information is processed and the most common format of demonstrating this is via the production of a privacy notice. The CCG has a privacy notice available via the website which documents information processing activities.

3.7 (b) Collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes; further processing for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes shall not be considered to be incompatible with the initial purposes;

3.7.1. Only use personal information obtained by the CCG in connection with the business of the CCG and ensure information is not used for any purposes other than originally intended.

3.8 (c) Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed;

3.8.1 Only obtain the minimum amount of information and do not obtain information which is not needed.

3.9 (d) Accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which they are processed, are erased or rectified without delay;

3.9.1 Ensure that all information entered either manually or electronically is accurate, and where recorded elsewhere ensure that there are appropriate procedures in place to continually review and update the different sources, to ensure accuracy and version control. Where possible do not hold duplicate copies as this increases the risk of inaccurate information being held.

Policy Reference: IG13	Approval date: 16//05/2018	Version number: V1
Status: Approved	Next review date: 16/05/2020	Page 7

3.10 (e) Kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed; personal data may be stored for longer periods insofar as the personal data will be processed solely for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes subject to implementation of the appropriate technical and organisational measures required by the GDPR in order to safeguard the rights and freedoms of individuals;

3.10.1 All records are affected by this article regardless of the media within which they are held and/or stored. For further guidance please see the CCG's Records Management Policy. When disposing of personal information use only the confidential waste destruction process.

3.11 (f) Processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.

3.11.1 Examples of which are:

- Do not allow unauthorised access;
- Do not share passwords and ensure you lock your PC screen before moving away;
- Do not leave confidential information on your desk/fax or post trays and ensure all paperwork is tidied away when not in use or at the end of the day.
- Ensure that computer / laptop screens are locked when away from desk.

3.12 Individual Rights

3.12.1 Individuals have strengthened rights under GDPR. In summary, these are:

- Right to subject access – individuals can request access to information we hold about them. The timeframe is 1 calendar month and no fee can be charged. In addition, individuals are required to provide an explanation of the categories of data being processed, the purposes of such processing, and the categories of third parties to whom the data may be disclosed. This is documented in the privacy notice.
- Right to rectification – ask for inaccurate information to be corrected and must comply within one calendar month.
- Right to objection – applies for direct marketing– (this is an absolute right and in such cases the CCG must comply immediately) and where automated processing is used.
- Right to restriction on processing – Have right where accuracy is contested, data controller no longer needs data but subject requires it to be kept for legal claims and individual has objected pending verification of legitimate grounds and other national programmes such as NHS Digital national opt-out.

- 5.4. If an individual is unclear if information should be classed as confidential, they must discuss the issue with their line manager / IG Team who will offer advice and guidance.

6. The Duty of Confidence

- 6.1. All NHS bodies and those carrying out functions on behalf of the NHS / CCG have a duty of confidence to service users and a duty to support professional ethical standards of confidentiality.
- 6.2. Everyone working for or with NHS / CCG records who handles, stores or otherwise comes across information that is capable of identifying individual service users has a personal duty of confidence to the service user and to his / her employer.
- 6.3. The duty of confidence is conferred by common law, statute, contract of employment, disciplinary codes and policies and professional registration.
- 6.4. Service users expect that information given to them by their doctors, nurses and other members of the healthcare team is treated in confidence and not passed to others without their permission. Similar considerations apply to personal information concerning other individuals, such as staff. Particular care must be taken to avoid inadvertent or accidental disclosure. The underlying principle is that all information that can be related to an individual must be treated as confidential and it must not be communicated to anyone who is unauthorised to receive it. Unauthorised staff includes those who are not involved in either the clinical care of the service user or the associated administration processes.
- 6.5. No personal information, given or received in confidence, may be passed to anyone else without the consent of the provider of the information or with a legal / statutory duty. This is usually the service user but sometimes another person may be the source (e.g. relative or carer).

Policy Reference: IG13	Approval date: 16//05/2018	Version number: V1
Status: Approved	Next review date: 16/05/2020	Page 12

- 6.6. No personal information, given or received in confidence, for one purpose may be used for a different purpose without the consent of the provider of the information, unless there are exceptional circumstances or legal / statutory duty.
- 6.7. Service users are entitled to object to the use of their personal health data for purposes other than their direct care.
- 6.8. The duty of confidentiality owed to a deceased service user is consistent with the rights of living individuals.

7. The Caldicott Principles

- 7.1 Caldicott guidelines were introduced in response to concerns raised by the way the NHS was handling personal confidential data. As a result, in 1997 a committee was set up and lead by Dame Fiona Caldicott to investigate and produce guidelines to ensure the confidentiality of individual information. The committee came up with 6 principles known as Caldicott principles.
- 7.2 In 2013, there was a further review of the Caldicott framework and a further report was produced called “Information Governance: To share or not to share” commonly known as Caldicott 3, this introduced a 7th Principle.
- 7.3 The Caldicott Principles are:

Principle 1 - Justify the purpose(s) for using confidential information

Every proposed use or transfer of personal confidential data within or from an organisation should be clearly defined, scrutinised and documented, with continuing uses regularly reviewed, by an appropriate guardian.

Principle 2 - Don't use personal confidential data unless it is absolutely necessary

Personal confidential data items should not be included unless it is essential for the specified purpose(s) of that flow. The need for patients to be identified should be considered at each stage of satisfying the purpose(s).

Principle 3 - Use the minimum necessary personal confidential data

Where use of personal confidential data is considered to be essential, the inclusion of each individual item of data should be considered and justified so that the minimum amount of personal confidential data is transferred or accessible as is necessary for a given function to be carried out.

Principle 4 - Access to personal confidential data should be on a strict need-to-know basis

Only those individuals who need access to personal confidential data should have access to it, and they should only have access to the data items that they need to see.

Policy Reference: IG13	Approval date: 16//05/2018	Version number: V1
Status: Approved	Next review date: 16/05/2020	Page 13

This may mean introducing access controls or splitting data flows where one data flow is used for several purposes.

Principle 5 - Everyone with access to personal confidential data should be aware of their responsibilities

Action should be taken to ensure that those handling personal confidential data - both clinical and non-clinical staff - are made fully aware of their responsibilities and obligations to respect patient confidentiality.

Principle 6 - Comply with the law

Every use of personal confidential data must be lawful. Someone in each organisation handling personal confidential data should be responsible for ensuring that the organisation complies with legal requirements.

Principle 7 - The duty to share information can be as important as the duty to protect patient confidentiality

Every use of personal confidential data must be lawful. Someone in each organisation handling personal confidential data should be responsible for ensuring that the organisation complies with legal requirements.

8. Confidentiality Codes of Practice

8.1 In 2013 the Health and Social Care Information Centre produced a document entitled 'A guide to confidentiality in health and social care – Treating confidential information with respect'. This outlines 5 rules that organisations should adhere to in relation to handling information.

These are:

RULE 1: Confidential information about service user or patients should be treated confidentially and respectfully.

RULE 2: Members of a care team should share confidential information when it is needed for the safe and effective care of an individual.

RULE 3: Information that is shared for the benefit of the community should be anonymised.

RULE 4: An individual's right to object to the sharing of confidential information about them should be respected.

RULE 5: Organisations should put policies, procedures and systems in place to ensure the confidentiality rules are followed.

Further guidance on the above rules can be found in the guidance document at:

For further detail regarding the right of access please refer to the SAR Procedure and the Individual Rights Procedure which are both located on SharePoint.

12.3. Where staff have specific and additional Information Governance roles within the CCG i.e. Caldicott Guardian, SIRO, Information Asset Owners / Administrators additional Information Governance training will be required. Additional training will be made available to all persons, where it is required. For further guidance refer to the CCG IG Training Needs and Analysis (TNA).

12.4. To maintain staff awareness, the CCG will direct staff to a number of sources:
